DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On December 14, 2020, Eve Bunting-Smith filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that as a result of an influenza vaccine received on December 27, 2017, she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration. Petition at 1. On December 2, 2022 a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 50.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated February 9, 2023 (ECF No. 55), requesting a total award of $38,755.10 (representing $37,874.60 in fees and $880.50 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 55-5. Respondent reacted to the motion on February 22, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. ECF No. 56. Petitioner filed a reply on February 22, 2023, indicating that, "Petitioner respectfully relies on the facts, law and argument presented in her motion submitted on February 9, 2023, in support of Petitioner's Final Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs." ECF No 57.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $38,755.10 (representing $37,874.60 in fees and $880.50 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Robert J. Krakow. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
